

East Amwell Historical Society 5th Annual

Holiday Historic House Tour Sunday, Dec 3 Tickets Now on Sale

Enjoy this year's entertaining bus tour as we visit four historic homes and venues which are as spectacular as those of the past.

Houses include: the 1735 Ingee's Ringoes Tavern whose owner collects antique lighting fixtures. Not only is the house filled with antiques, moreover as an added bonus, his barn is a preservation of early American general store collectibles.

We will also be visiting the railroad masters house on Bowne Dr., followed by a large Italianate house complete with six fireplaces and a weaving studio.

Rounding up the tour is an 1880's 4- square house filled with paintings of a well known local artist.

Tickets are $25, which includes tour bus transportation, a 2018 EAHS calendar and wonderful indulgence at the Harvest Moon Restaurant for an assortment of fresh baked cookies and coffee and tea.

Buses leave 1pm from the Municipal Building in Ringoes and should return by 4:30pm. To purchase tickets contact Pauline Saramba at pseramba@hotmail.com or 908-797-9024. Tickets are very limited so order early.
