

News Release
For Immediate Release
September 18, 2018

Subject: Hunterdon County Historical Society's Annual Rare Book and Map Sale!

Contact: Hunterdon County Historical Society- Patricia Millen- 908-782-1091
hunterdonhistorypatricia@gmail.com

Flemington, NJ

The Hunterdon County Historical Society is gearing up for the annual unique and rare book sale fundraising event at the Society's headquarters at 114 Main Street, Flemington on Sunday, October 14, 2018 from 9 am to 2 pm. This year's sale is scheduled to take place to coincide with the Second Sunday Flea, Antiques, Treasures and Finds in downtown Flemington sponsored by the Flemington Community Partnership. www.exploreflemington.com.

Coordinator of the event for the Society, Mary Ellen Soldavin, says this year's sale is remarkable with a number of exciting finds of books and pamphlets. Sale items are duplicates from the Society's collections and library, along with gifts to the Society earmarked for the annual sale.

This year's sale includes some original editions and several rare books such as: George Washington's Last Will and Testament, 1800; African Game Trails by Teddy Roosevelt, 1910 first ed.; The Gardener's Kalendar, 1760; and The Marvelous Musical Prodigy, Blind Tom, the negro Boy Pianist, 1876. Also included in the sale are many genealogies, travel pamphlets, advertising cards, school books and almanacs.

For more information about the Society and the annual book sale, visit the website: www.hunterdonhistory.org or call the Society @ 908-782-1091. Cash and personal checks only are accepted at the sale.