COLONIAL TOYS AND GAMES AT THE BOUMAN-STICKENY FARMSTEAD

Readington Township, NJ – People through the ages have enjoyed games and played with toys for recreational and educational purposes. Come on Sunday, April 7 from 1:00-4:00 p.m. as Bev Altrath and Arlene Soong present Colonial Toys and Games. There will be some toys on display as well as games on hand for both adults and children to play. Come roll hoops, toss rings, and play games such as skittles, draughts, graces, and more. This Open House Sunday program will be held at the Bouman-Stickney Farmstead, located at 114 Dreahook Road in the Stanton section of the township. For GPS, use Lebanon, NJ 08833.

This is a free, family-friendly event, although donations will be gratefully accepted. In case of inclement weather please call the Museums to find out the status of the program. For more information, please visit, www.readingtontwp.org/ReadingtonMuseums.html or call 908-236-2327.

The Readington Museums received an operating support re-grant from the Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission, with funds from the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State.
